

Noteworthy News from the desk of Ms. Ballerini

For the Week of October 11th to October 15th

Reading - We will conclude Module 1A by reviewing "Location, Location, Location," Gasping Garbage, and "Thundercake." We will continue discussing how characters' actions impact a story.

Phonics - We will continue with vowel digraphs ee, ea, ai, ay, oa, ow. We will review how these digraphs make long vowel sounds. The test on Unit 1, Module A, Lessons 16-18 will be Friday, 10/15.

Grammar - We will learn about and use pronouns. We will review regular (jump-jumped) and irregular verbs (run-ran) as well.

Writing - We will wrap up our narratives.

Math - Students will be reviewing for the Unit 2 test in class and will be taking the Unit 2 assessment and cumulative assessment at the end of the week.

Social Studies - Continuing in Lesson 2: Finding Places in the United States. We will be measuring how far New Lenox is from different destinations around the country.

Upcoming Events/Reminders

1. Wednesday, 10/13: Wear yellow for Respect.
2. Thursday, 10/14: Prairie Pumpkin Patch Day at school.
(We will be outside in the afternoon, make sure your student is dressed accordingly!)
3. Friday, 10/15: Dress like a Superhero!
4. Library will be on Friday this week. We will turn in our books and check out new ones with Mrs. Lasak on Friday, October 15th!
5. Cops Care Coat Drive until 10/28.