What's Happening in Our Classrooms

Mr. Balderman: Science/SS

Social Studies: We have been talking about the creation of our government and the Constitution. We discussed why there was a need for the Bill of Rights. We will be wrapping up the year talking about westward expansion.

Please check powerschool for missing work and grades.

Mrs. Brost: ELA

Reading: Novel: 'War with Grandpa'- in class. Sign Movie Permission for Friday.)

Skill: Compare and Contrast Structure

Foundational Skill: Suffixes -ous

Grammar: Commas

Grammar notes are in the virtual binder in Google Classroom.

Spelling: Review Units- No Test 😊

Assignments are posted daily in the ELA google classroom under "Assignment Book."

Ms. Goad: Math

Next week we will be dividing fractions and solving conversions.

We will use IXL to reinforce these skills. We will also be reviewing topics using IXL Group Jam.

Ms. Midlock: Science/SS/Math

SOCIAL STUDIES: This week we learned about the Articles of Confederation, the Constitutional Convention, and the constitution. Next week we will continue discussing the Bill of Rights. Please check PowerSchool for grades, missing assignments need to be completed!!

MATH: We finished Unit 7 this week. Next Friday, May 20, we will be taking our final math test of the year. It will focus on quadrilaterals, multiplying mixed numbers, dividing fractions, and identifying and graphing patterns. Students will receive a study guide on Monday. Please practice these skills in iXL this weekend!

Mrs. Sieger: ELA

Next week we will continue to read A Dog's Life with a quiz on Part 2 on Thursday May 19th. No more spelling! We have completed those lists!

We will be reviewing Lessons 1-6 in diagramming. All missing or late work is due on May 20th.

Please check that your child has working headphones. We use them almost every day. Thank you!

Mrs. Worden: ELA

I am moving our The Great Migration test to Wednesday, May 18. We will continue to read our small group novels. We will be doing a review activity for spelling words. Graded activities end on Friday, May 20. Encourage your students to give their best effort to finish out the year strong! Thank you!

Mrs. Berwanger

We will test on Lesson 3 Monday! For the remainder of the school year, we will try to power through Unit 3 and get most completed. Monday will be our last test, however, we will still continue to work on a variety of activities for credit.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR MISS MIDLOCK!
NOW MRS. PATTERSON!
