

DATE: _____

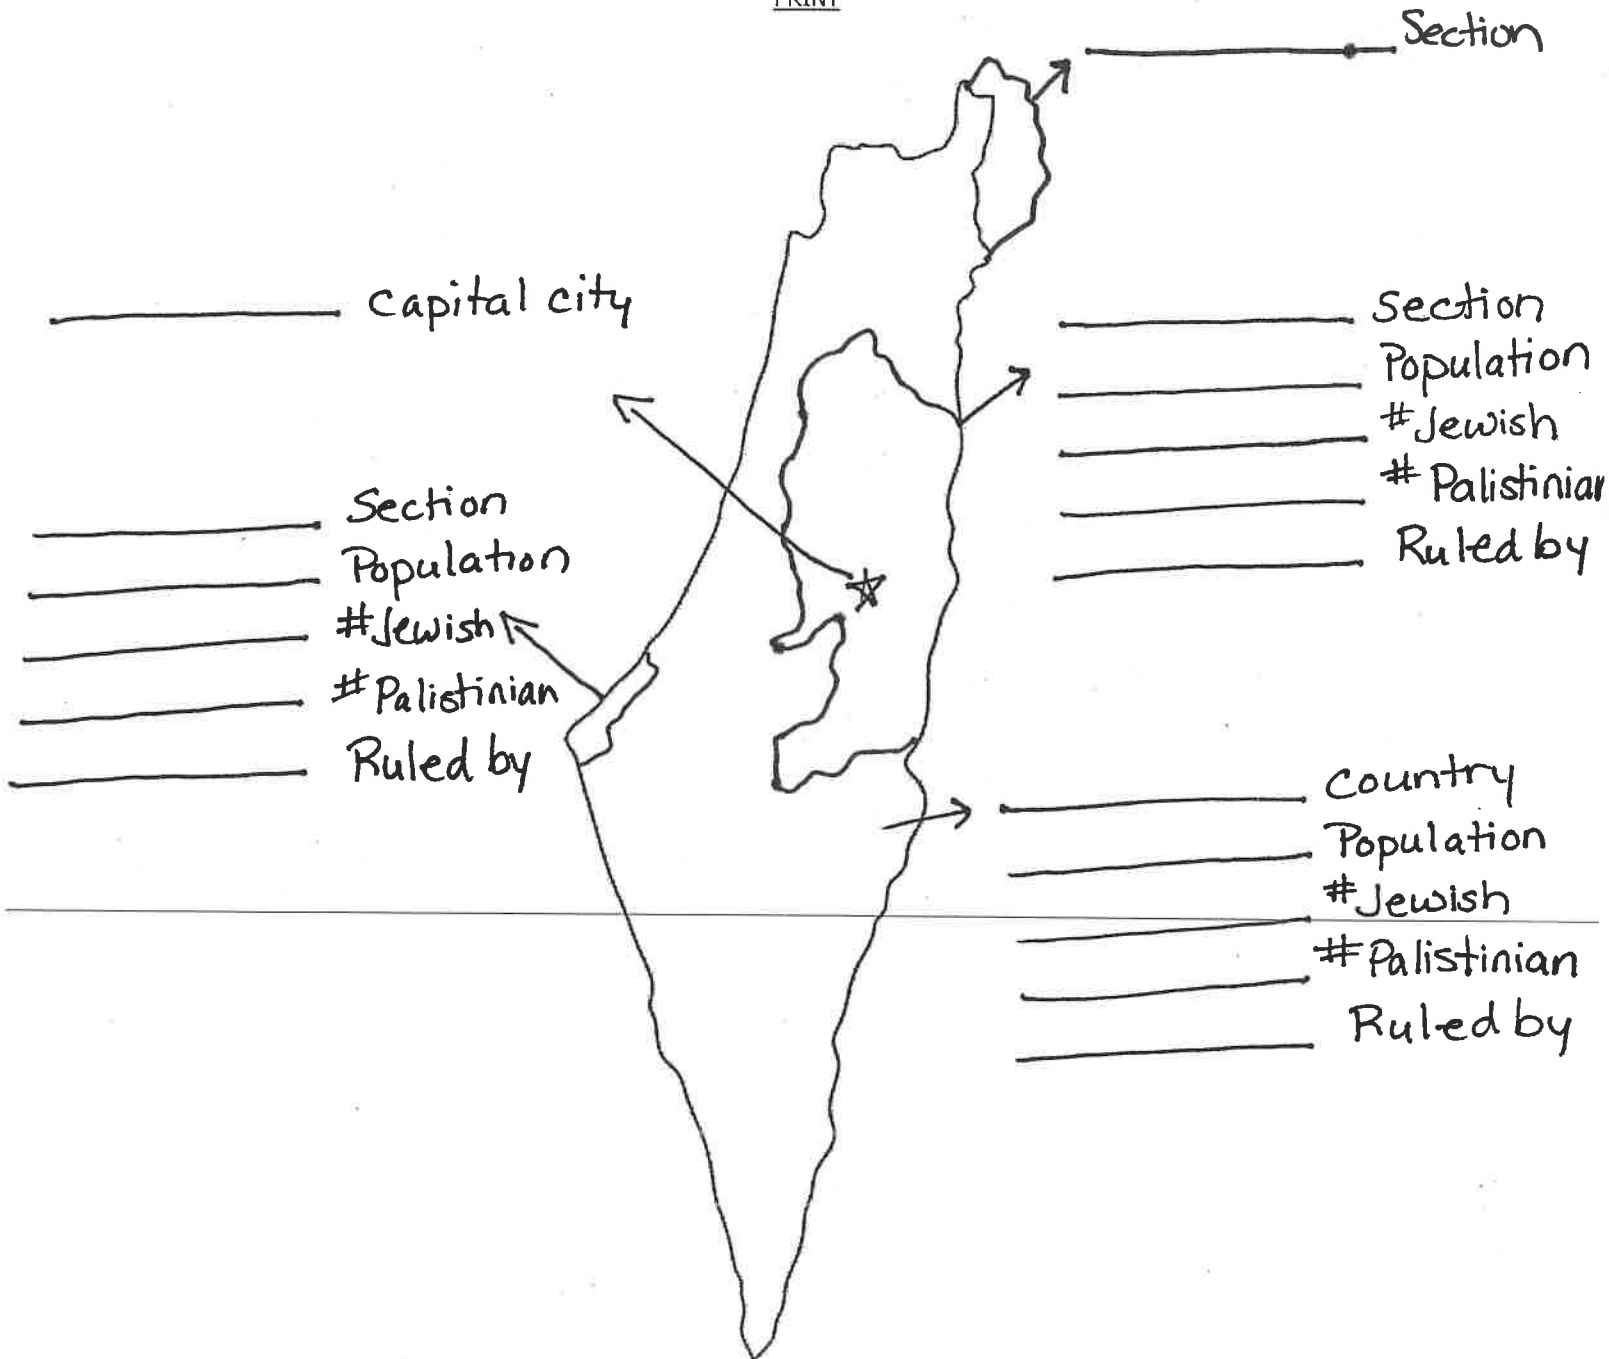

ARAB ISRAELI CONFLICT NEARPOD NOTES
ISRAEL (FORMERLY PALESTINE) MAP

israel outline map

3/3/09 2:14 PM

WorldAtlas.Com^{Inc.}

PRINT

Date: _____

Arab-Israeli Conflict Nearpod Notes

Palestine 3,000 Years Ago • _____ and _____ settled in Palestine (or _____ to the Jews) 3,000 years ago. Jews claim _____ gave the land to them.	Jews Forced Out • In A.D. 73, the _____ Empire forced the Jews to leave Palestine. Jews scattered throughout the world (the "_____"). The _____ stayed in _____ Palestine, later becoming _____.	Racism • _____ were mistreated wherever they went. In Russia, people attacked Jews and burned their villages. Later in Germany, _____ million Jews were killed in the _____ Jews began planning to return to Israel.
Immigration • Jews began returning to Israel in _____, buying land and building villages. When _____ won WWI, they took control of Palestine and said they supported the Jews returning to their _____.	Conflict • _____ were furious at Great Britain and the Jews. Fighting broke out in Palestine. It got so bad that Great Britain finally gave the whole problem over to the _____ to solve.	Jews Get a Homeland • The U.N. divided Palestine into a _____ part, an _____ part and kept control of the city of _____. The Palestinians were furious to lose part of their country. Then other _____ nations attacked Israel to kick the _____ out, but _____ won. Jews gained control of the entire country. _____ fled the country to find safety.

Video Questions:

Why are they still fighting?

Israelis say:

Palestinians say:

Both Israelis and Palestinians believe they have _____ claims to the land.

What two groups have used terrorism to try to fight for an Independent Palestine?

How does Israel respond to the attacks? What is the lasting result?

Do you think peace can be obtained? Why or why not?

Impact on the World today:

- Today, _____ is still very far away.
- Walls, _____, and Israeli soldiers are a constant reminder to the Palestinians of the _____ occupation of their land.
- _____ talks have occurred but more conflicts continue to further _____ the situation in the Middle East.
- Unless _____ sides are willing to _____ (give up something), this conflict may be _____

Read the paragraph on the next slide from our text (Exploring Our World) page 463 to answer the following question:

Violence and distrust continue today, why does the Arab-Israeli conflict have an impact on the rest of the world? Describe 3 ways.