

Ellis Island through Age of Imperialism - TEST STUDY GUIDE

The _____th Amendment made alcohol illegal in the United States.

What was a community center that offered services to the poor called?

Immigrants coming to America through _____ Island saw the Statue of Liberty as they entered New York harbor.

What were the people who campaigned for women's right to vote called?

Immigrants coming to America through _____ Island entered the country through San Francisco Bay.

What were poorly built, overcrowded apartment buildings that were created by dividing multistoried buildings into small sections called?

The _____th Amendment gave women the right to vote.

What was the area below a ship's deck, where many immigrants coming to America traveled (because less-expensive tickets could be purchased) called?

What were workplaces where many "unskilled" immigrants worked long hours, in poor condition, for little pay called?

What was public transportation systems that were designed to move large amounts of people at one time known as?

What were residential neighborhoods that were located outside of the downtown areas of major cities called?

What were giant retail shops that sold many different types of goods, and became popular in the late-1800s, called?

Who were the journalists that urged Progressives to take action by writing stories that vividly described the problems of society?

What is the protection of nature and its resources known as?

What were the organizations that offered aid to immigrants in cases of sickness, unemployment and death known as?

Which president, in 1898, sent the battleship, the USS Maine, to Cuba to protect America's investments there?

What was the uprising in China, in which foreigners all over China were attacked by Chinese rebels, called?

What did the United States purchase from Russia for $7.2 million?

Who was elected President, as Theodore Roosevelt's successor, in 1908?

What is the policy of powerful countries seeking control of the economic and political affairs of weaker countries called?

What is having little to do with foreign affairs is known as?

What is the man-made waterway that connects the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans called?

What were the reformers who worked to solve problems and improve the fast-growing society of the late-1800s called?

Who was the “hero” of the Spanish-American War, who later went on to become President of the United States?

In 1898, The United States annexed (added on) _____ as a territory that was to be used as a trade outpost in the Pacific Ocean.

What were the Righteous Fists of Harmony more commonly known as?

What is the writing tactic, used by reporters, in which the emotions of the reader are intended to be affected (played a big role in American supporting Cuba and the idea of going to war with Spain) called?

What is the theory in which any nation can trade with any other nation called?

Who co-founded the Hull House - the most-famous settlement house, in a run-down, poor Chicago neighborhood?

Who were the group of soldiers, led by Theodore Roosevelt, who volunteered their service during the Spanish-American War?

President McKinley asked Congress to declare war on Spain after which unfortunate, significant event?

What was the greatest hazard that those who worked on the Panama Canal experienced?

What was President Grover Cleveland’s stance in regards to the United States adding Hawaii on as a territory?

What was the United States’ large, and powerful, navy known as in the late-1800’s?

How many workers helped in the construction of the Panama Canal?

How did President Woodrow Wilson’s sending U.S. troops into Mexico to hunt down Pancho Villa affect the relationship between the two countries?

Which two islands did the United States gain from Spain as part of the Treaty of Paris?

_____ is a chain of 8 main islands and more than 100 smaller islands.

What were the American peoples’ feelings about Theodore Roosevelt while he was President?