

This is the order that you touch the points of the coins. Each time you touch a point you count by fives.

When you get to a penny you run your finger across it horizontally and count by ones.

Practice with the touch points:

Practice without the touch points:

